

How would an Ancient Greek warrior view the world we currently live in?

How would our founding fathers view Philadelphia as it stands today?