

Beginner's Mind in Street Photography

What is Beginner's Mind?

- Zen concept:
Shoshin
- Every day is Day
One
- Curiosity over mastery

Day One Philosophy

- Wake up as if reborn
- See everything as new
- Childlike perception

Childlike Curiosity

- Mundane becomes art
- Scratches, potholes, reflections
- Infinite photography

Amateur Defined

- Latin Amare = to love
- Not about money or mastery
- Do it for joy

Why I'll Always Be an Amateur

- Always learning, never mastered
- Play > professionalism
- Stay open, stay curious

The Spirit of Play

- No checklists
- No projects
- Photograph what moves you

Forget What You Know

- Let go of preconceptions
- Free from good vs bad
- Empty the mind

Detachment from Results

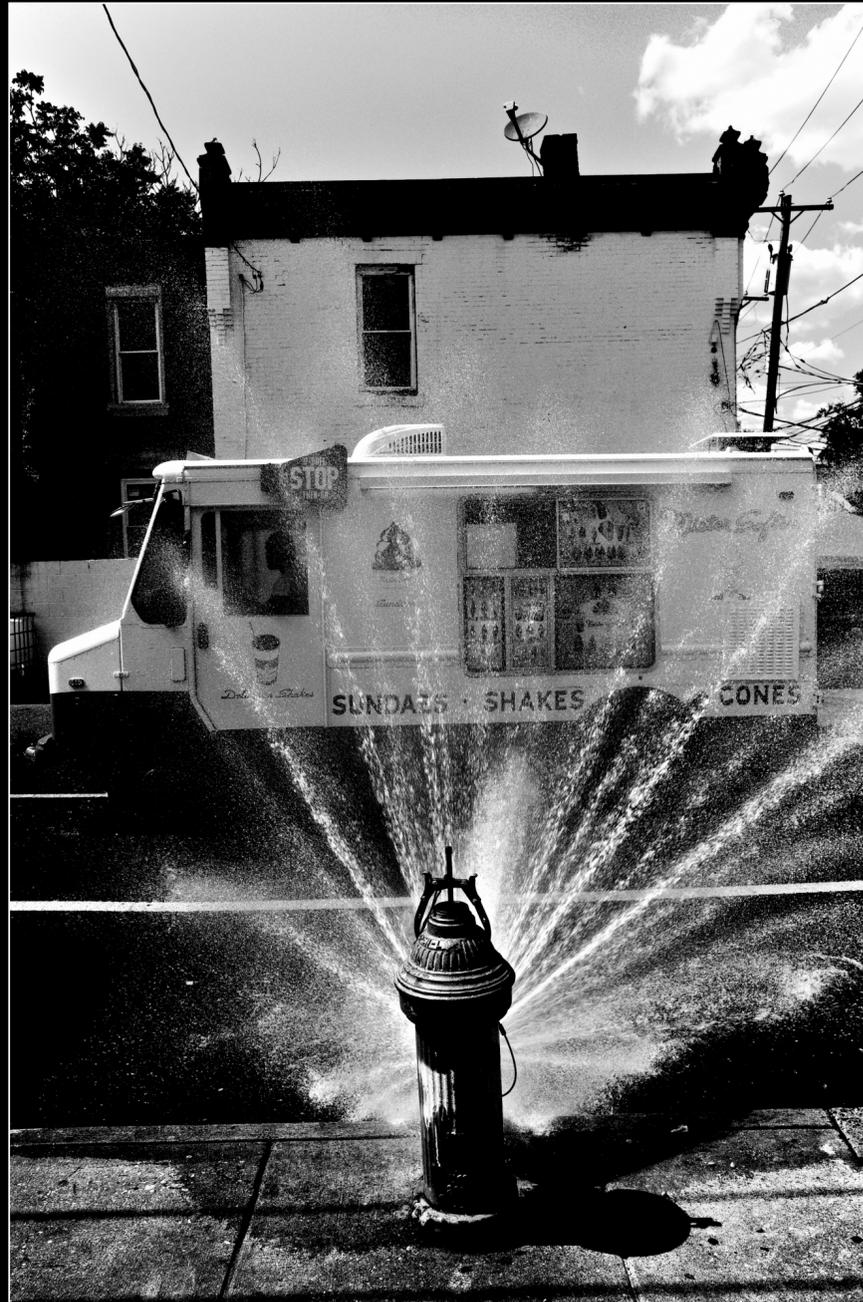

- Don't chase style
- Don't worry about outcome
- Just be present

Photography as a Way of Being

- A philosophy of life
- Seeing deeply, living fully
- Never miss another sunrise

Remember

- Treat every day like Day One
- Forget what you think you know
- Stay an amateur forever

Final Takeaway

- The eyes of the amateur will tell the story of what it was like to be alive today.
